The “All You Can Eat” Rodizio Experience

Rodizio is a uniquely Brazilian style of barbeque, which offers a wide variety of flavors. A troop of carvers (gauchos) roam throughout the restaurant offering guests choice cuts of beef, chicken, lamb, pork, and sausage. The meats are roasted, slowly spinning in a special Brazilian rotisserie. Once seated, your Brazilian dining experience begins. You have the option to either first relax with your favorite cocktail or head straight to our unique antipasto/hot/cold bar.
